

EXIT QUESTIONNAIRE Year 6 pupils 2015-2016

What qualities I have gained from being a student at St. Pauls:	What things would I have liked to have learnt at St. Pauls:
I have learnt great social skills and how to make friends and interact with others.	I would have liked to have learnt more Drama throughout the 7 years I have been at St. Pauls.
I have learnt how to show love and compassion to others.	I would have liked to have learnt Spanish whilst at St. Pauls.
I have learnt how to stand up for myself.	I would have liked to have learnt some more unusual, uncommon and different sports.
I have learnt to respect people and be fair, equal and treat everyone how I would like to be treated.	I would have liked to have learnt an instrument of my own choice and have better teaching at it.
I have learnt how to be a role model to other children and show them what the right thing to do is.	I would have liked to focus on a wider variety of I.C.T topics.
I have learnt about different cultures and types of people and how we should treat them.	I would have liked to have learnt some other languages as well as French.
I have learnt to be responsible and prepare for my future life.	I would like more D.T lessons.
I have learnt how to be kind, thoughtful and how to show a good example to younger children.	I would have liked to have learnt everyday life skills that may come in handy in future life.
I have learnt how to be creative in how I learn, make and think.	I would have liked to have learnt how to cook.
I have learnt how to trust and love others.	I would have liked to learn how to build things in D.T lessons.
I have learnt to have more confidence in myself.	I would have liked to have learnt how to handle life changing decisions.
I have learnt how to show compassion and care for those less fortunate or from a different background as me.	I would have liked to have learnt more about SPaG and how to do it.
I have learnt what I am good at and how to show my talents to the best of my ability.	I would have liked to have learnt more different varieties of History.
I have learnt how to show good sportsmanship and how to self-check and improve my own learning.	I would have liked to have learnt different religions for a longer amount of time instead of just a week.
I have learnt how to be a good and kind friend.	I would have liked to have done more fun and exciting courses and how to build a shelter.
I have learnt what the right and wrong things to do are.	I would have liked to have learnt how to make technology.
My confidence has improved a lot since I started at St. Pauls	I would have liked to have learnt how to do more contemporary dance and dance routines.
I have learnt how to take care of all my personal belongings and how to show generosity to others.	I would have liked to do more exciting science experiments including Bunsen Burners.
I have learnt to be more independent and safe.	I would have liked to go on more exciting school trips.
I have learnt the ability to be able to tackle hard subjects and problems. I have learnt how to lead and help people.	I would have liked to choose what topics I did more.
I have learnt how to be a team player and be supportive to others in our school.	I would have liked to have learnt more how to get ready for secondary school.
I have learnt to be responsible for handing my homework and other work in on time.	I would have liked to have spent more time doing P.E.
I have learnt to know my challenges and work them out. I have learnt how to face problems instead of ignore them.	I would have liked to have done more hands on activities.
I have learnt to know and work towards the expectation of the year.
I have learnt to look after younger children.
I have learnt how to communicate with peers and teachers and how to be polite.
I have learnt how to connect through different activities with others and show empathy and emotion.
I have learnt how to focus on all my work and make sure I do not get distracted or disturb other people.	